WICHITA MUSIC

ACADEMY

Happy New Year! 2015

Is this the year you learn music?

Is it your dream to learn music? Make that your New Year's resolution and then 2015 will be known as the year you started your musical journey!

Joe and Arletta Perrie's special year was 2013, when they enrolled in a Goofin' Around Keyboard Class at Garten's Music. Now Arletta has graduated from the Lowrey Book 3 Class, and Joe takes guitar lessons from instructor Matt Kuzma through the Wichita Music Academy.

They learned about the Goofin' Around program when they met Cindy Houston, president of Garten's Music, at Senior Expo in Wichita.

"She showed the EZ play method, and we thought we'd like to try that," Arletta said.

Arletta had taken some piano lessons as an adult, and Joe had a few guitar lessons. They didn't have a good experience, but Joe said the Goofin' Around Keyboard Class renewed his self-confidence.

"Through the classes it's helped me gain confidence that yeah, I can do this," he said.

Now he urges others to try the classes as well.

"Go to an introductory class," he advised. "You'll find that it's very relaxed, easy, non-threatening and you'll have a good time. I've experienced another place or two, and they don't come close to comparing."

Arletta said she appreciated the chance to play for fun and without pressure. She also wanted to see if she could learn something new. She now owns a Lowrey EZ4,

Ho-ho-holiday ... the Lowrey way

Dennis Awe (right) and Brad Bryan of Lowrey visited Wichita for the Lowrey Christmas Cantata! They helped Garten's Music provide two days of music, tips and information for our students before the holidays.

"Keys" to a happy New Year ...

Diana Shook, above, and husband Steve were excited to purchase a Kawai grand piano at Garten's! She's a great pianist who is sure to make beautiful music.

Kay Taylor smiles about her December purchase, a Kawai grand piano. She and her husband, Robert, no doubt had a merry Christmas, complete with festive music!

Mark your calendars!

and she likes to play waltzes and dance songs with the various rhythm styles that the Lowrey organs offer.

“That’s the fun part,” she added. “You can play all these different instruments and play them all different ways. It never gets boring – all the variety.”

Joe likes country songs, gospel music and Christmas tunes. He is pleased to learn from Kuzma.

“I really like Matt not only as a teacher but as a person,” Joe said.

“I think you’ve come a long way with him, too,” Arletta said.

The couple spends a few months in Texas each year, and Joe met a man who used to play music with Waylon Jennings. When he’s in Texas, Joe joins that man and a few other musicians who get together and jam.

“When you are playing music and trying to learn new music, time just goes by so fast,” Joe said. “You don’t think about anything else in the world.”

The Perries planned to play together in December and record Christmas carols for their relatives.

“We’re probably not going to make No. 1 on the chart,” Joe said with a grin.

The Perries don’t believe in slowing down during retirement. Arletta paints with a group in Texas, and she sold five paintings last year.

“There’s a certain amount of enjoyment from being able to learn new things,” Arletta said. “That’s always enjoyable to me.”
